Dry

Sauvignon Blanc

glass $6 • bottle $19

Sauvignon Blanc means "wild white" which is a great description of this wine. Fruitful and crisp with hints of peach and lemongrass make this the perfect wine to enjoy on a warm day.

Chardonnay

glass $6 • bottle $19

This full-bodied white wine has strong notes of tropical fruit and hints of vanilla and caramel from being aged in oak. Crisp and refreshing, Chardonnay pairs well with foods like goat cheese and fish entrées.

Bella Red

glass $5 • bottle $17

Not your average Cabernet. The fruity bouquet and enticing aroma greet your palate; while a surprisingly dry finish leaves you wanting more. Strong traces of raspberry and lighter hints of blackberry are enjoyed from start to finish.

Carménère

glass $6 • bottle $26

This medium bodied red wine has similar characteristics to Merlot and intriguing flavors of paprika, bell pepper and rose. Bottoms up!

Cabernet Sauvignon

glass $6 • bottle $26

This red blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Carménère, and Petite Verdot is smooth, oaky and bursting with flavor. These Chilean grapes are fruit forward with traces of black pepper and vanilla.

BELLA TERRA VINEYARDS

ROSÉ CIDER

$5/glass

Harvest Rosé Hard Cider

$6/can

Welcome fall with this beautifully delicious harvest cider with hints of cranberry and juicy apple (of course!) Crisp, refreshing and perfect for cozying up to a bonfire.
